BIOGRAPHY

THREE DECADES OF MUSICAL DIALOGUE

FULL BIOGRAPHY

For three decades, pianist and composer Michel Bisceglia, double bassist Werner Lauscher and drummer Marc Léhan have developed a distinctive musical language built on trust, restraint and a rare sense of collective timing. Their sound is lyrical and cinematic, yet firmly rooted in the openness of the jazz tradition. Melodies unfold with clarity; silence becomes part of the arrangement; and every performance is shaped by the trio's instinctive interplay.

The ensemble has carried that identity to international stages, including the Rochester International Jazz Festival, Jarasum International Jazz Festival, Hong Kong International Jazz Festival, Guimarães Jazz Festival and Ulverston Music Festival. Across changing rooms, audiences and musical contexts, the line-up has remained constant - an artistic continuity that gives the trio both depth and freedom.

In 2026, The Virgo marks thirty years of Michel Bisceglia, Werner Lauscher and Marc Léhan performing together. Released by Prova Records, the album brings new original music into dialogue with selected compositions from the trio's shared history. It is an anniversary without nostalgia: intimate, spacious and forward-looking music, refined through decades of listening to one another.
